

AMAZON ALUMINIUM PROJECT

- moving forward to post-COVID-19 era –

Brazil-Japan Business Council Meeting

Kenji Kobayashi

President & CEO

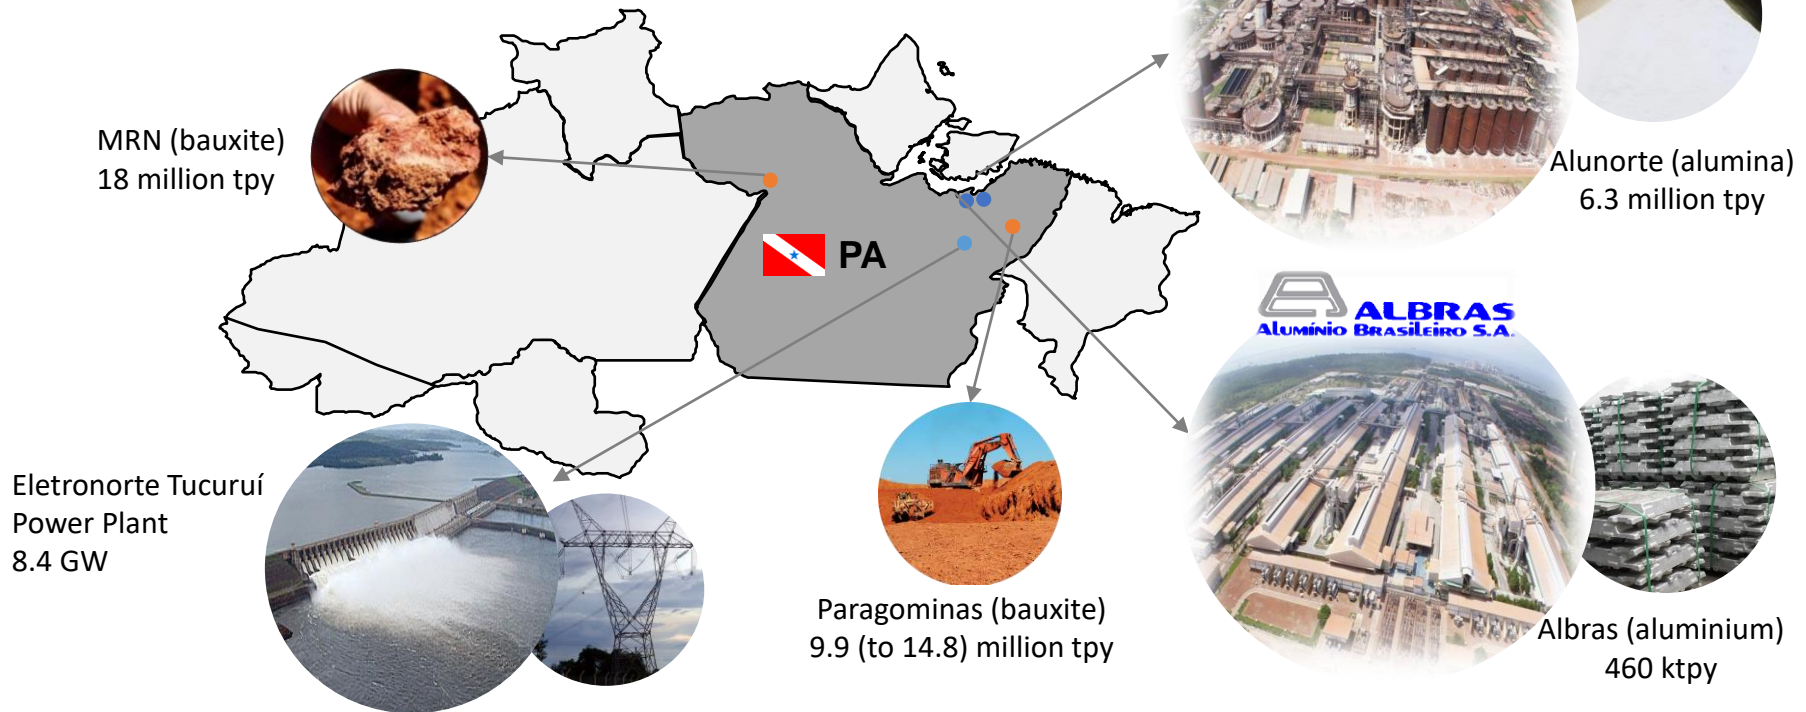

Nippon Amazon Aluminium Co.,Ltd. (NAAC)

AMAZON ALUMINIUM PROJECT

From renewable energy and natural resources to aluminium products

High-quality Bauxite and Hydropower
the key enablers

- Alunorte : 25 years in operation, the world's largest alumina refinery outside China, accounts for 60% of alumina production in Brazil
- Albras : 35 years in operation, accounts for 50% of primary aluminium production in Brazil, supplies 10% of primary aluminium needs of Japan through NAAC^(*)

(*) Nippon Amazon Aluminium Co.,Ltd., consists of JICA and Japanese private companies

AMAZON ALUMINIUM PROJECT

Fighting COVID-19, together with the responsible partner

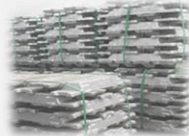

We are operating.

Alunorte (alumina) - 60% of domestic production

Albras (primary aluminium) - 50% of domestic production

Aluminium supply chain is considered as the essential activity (*)

(*) State Decree 729/2020, Federal Decree Nº 10.329/2020

Safety and Health, top priority.

Protecting 9,000 employees and contractors of Albras and Alunorte.

Distance in workspace and commuting; Cleaning; Temperature check; Hygiene intensification; Segregation & barriers; Health inspections; Rapid testing; Counseling; Medical support; etc.

"Together Against COVID-19"

Medidas de Enfrentamento à COVID-19

Handbook

Joining efforts with local authorities and communities.

BRL 20 million donation, estimated to reach 1 million people in Pará:

Construction of field hospitals (960 beds); Albras condominium for medical treatment; Healthcare equipment and materials over 100 thousand items; 5,000 test kits to 7 municipalities; 25 thousand baskets with food and hygiene items; etc.

COVID Response project:

Financial and technical support for local workers during the economic recovery timeframe;
Long-term development plan for local community business.

AMAZON ALUMINIUM PROJECT

Key messages

moving forward to post-COVID-19 era

- Amazon Aluminium Project is committed to further actively contributing to sustainable development of Brazil towards Post-COVID-19 era.
- Predictable business condition based on the government support (especially on the electricity policy, vital for competitiveness of aluminium smelters) is the key to success in Amazon Aluminum Project's further contribution to sustainable development of Brazil towards post-COVID-19 era.

Obrigado!